Brigade,

The other day you received an email announcing that “satanic services” would start this week. This email was sent without my review or approval, as required by policy; it did not represent the U.S. Naval Academy’s Command Religious Program.

Recently, a group of Midshipmen, via a senior enlisted leader, requested a space where they could assemble to discuss and share their beliefs, which align with what is practiced by The Satanic Temple (a nontheistic religious and politically active movement based in the U.S., recognized as a church by the Internal Revenue Service). The request was for a "study group" space, not for holding "satanic services," as stated in the email.

The USNA Command Religious Program provides for the exercise of diverse beliefs. Arrangements were being made to provide the Midshipmen with a designated place to assemble as chaplains facilitate for the beliefs of all service members, a responsibility outlined by Navy instructions (SECNAVINST 1730.7E and BUPERSINST 1730.11 CH-1).

Americans embrace a wide array of beliefs, life philosophies, and opinions, and our Constitution guarantees to all the right to hold those beliefs and to freely exercise such beliefs (modified by unique requirements accompanying military life). The Command Religious Program at the Naval Academy facilitates the opportunity for the free expression of diverse beliefs, but without endorsing any particular belief.

Midshipmen have the right to assemble to discuss their beliefs as they choose, but, to be clear, in accordance with Department of Defense Policy, military members will not engage in partisan political activities, and will avoid the inference that their activities may appear to imply DoD approval or endorsement of a political cause.

A gentle reminder, as members of the military, we are committed to treating all people with dignity and respect at all times. That entails the way we speak to one another and refer to one another in email or on social media; dignity and respect is the standard, anytime and all the time. Many thanks for your attention. Sincerely yours,

Fr. (b) (6)

All,

MIDN 1/C (b) (6) (1) sent an email earlier this week announcing Satanic services being offered on the Yard. She had permission from a chaplain to send this email. We know now that this email was sent prematurely because the Command Chaplain (CAPT (b) (6)) had not seen or approved it. This is not 1/C (b) (6) fault. She believed she had the proper permission and acted accordingly. (b) (2)

Ladies and Gentlemen,

A few notes to pass along:

- Bar on the yard: This is a MIDN-driven adventure. Pilot night is this Thursday in the MAC for 1/C and 2/C of legal drinking age. Uniform is spirit tops and khakis.
- CC announcements: After striper announcements, which will *likely be Thursday at noon meal full Spring staff list will be passed by way of Commandant Note Friday afternoon. Please ensure your Commanders know that Spring Commanders will be expected to attend the Gettysburg Leadership Encounter on 8DEC, as well as a Midnight Teachable Moments/ Dant's intro on 5DEC.
- Service assignment: Working Blues for 1/C for service assignment ceremony, not Tactical Thursday. NO LIVE STREAMS. If MIDN want to record the ceremony they may, but everyone in the video must agree to it being posted before it goes live on the internet. If you get a request from PAO to have media in your company spaces, ensure you get it approved through your BattO (i.e. CBS sports highlighting some football players). This will be allowed as long as it is not live broadcasted and is agreed on by all in the video. If one MIDN does not want to be in the video, we must respect that and not record it.
- 18NOV Dant Call: Dant's pre-service assignment call goes at 1930 on 18NOV. One CO or SEL per company is requested as Dant will be reviewing service assignment stats (i.e. # first choice, second choice, etc). Additionally, Brigade Commander and Captain of Captains will be addressing their class afterward to address some issues and do a sort of standards reset. The call may go until 2015, FYSA.

(b) (2)

- Dant Offsite: (b) (5)
 - (b) (2)

(b) (2)

• Door Decorating

- Halloween lessons learned forthcoming from First Lieutenant
- Winter decorating will follow the same guidance, with any adjustments from lessons learned; any input from Battalion Officers and XO's on tweaks to guidance to make it more successful would be appreciated.

Thank you and please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. Have a great evening!

(1) Leadership from all ECA(r)-type groups must go through "ECA Covenant Training". This includes any off-Yard leadership of your group. I have copied Chaplain (b) (6) who leads that training, so you two can coordinate a time.

(2) Unless your group is officially registered as an USNA ECA, we can only reserve space for a limited duration (e.g., the fall semester). This is true for all of our smaller, minority faith groups which operate during solely Plebe Summer. I will speak with LT (b) (6) next week about what is required to be designated as an ECA and get back to you. Once that is complete, we will be allowed to then book for the spring semester.

Please note:

- (1) Leadership from all ECA(r)-type groups must go through "ECA Covenant Training". This includes any off-Yard leadership of your group. I have copied Chaplain (b) (6) who leads that training, so you two can coordinate a time.
- (2) Unless your group is officially registered as an USNA ECA, we can only reserve space for a limited duration (e.g., the fall semester). This is true for all of our smaller, minority faith groups which operate during solely Plebe Summer. I will speak with LT (b) (6) next week about what is required to be designated as an ECA and get back to you. Once that is complete, we will be allowed to then book for the spring semester.
